5 Top Destinations to Visit in 2019

By Julie Bishop

It's a new year. That means new plans, new holidays and some destinations that will amaze us or continue to amaze us in 2019.

What destinations should you add to your bucket list this year? Here are five top destinations to visit in 2019.

TURKEY

Turkey made a huge comeback on the scene last year, and this year it is no different. This destination swept visitors from their feet with natural beauty, historic towns such as Cappadocia, gorgeous islands, bays and some of the most beautiful beaches in the world. Turkey is the perfect destination for families too and everyone looking for a summer holiday. Now more than ever, Blue Cruise holidays are recognized as the ideal way to explore the Turkish coast and make the best use of the summer holiday. You can rent a crewed yacht with your friends and family and spend a week away from crowds in pristine nature, or you can visit all the hotspots on the Turkish Riviera and enjoy those activities.

SRI LANKA

Sri Lanka is an exotic destination that is gaining popularity, and it's having its special moment on the world map for holiday hotspot destinations. Sri Lanka is an ideal travel destination for those who want to experience wildlife, monumental temples, gorgeous beaches with coconut water drink in hand, and of course, active people who adore water sports. What makes Sri Lanka even more special are the kind and welcoming people. If you are planning holidays with family, you will not go wrong choosing this destination. Travelers with budgets in almost any range can enjoy this magical destination.

DENMARK

This Scandinavian country continues to charm its visitors in recent years, no matter which time of the year you plan to travel. Demand has scenic beaches, fairy-tale castles, green forests and trails, friendly and polite citizens and an endless feel-good atmosphere. Denmark is a big eco-friendly country and that's obvious in all towns and villages so you can unwind in preserved nature and beauty. In Copenhagen, which some call the most beautiful town in Europe, the bicycle is the best way to explore the picturesque city. Besides natural beauty, the art scene is quite strong and there are many interesting happenings in cities across the country. Food is another factor and you'll find many options for fine dining and enjoying the best of Scandinavian cuisine.

CROATIA

Another popular destination that has grown in popularity is Croatia. Though a relatively small country, Croatia offers many types of holidays, depending which season you decide to go. It is well adapted to please any generation from young to mature. You can visit the long scenic coast, or take a ferry ride to one of the beautiful islands, but you will have to do some research on which to choose because Croatia has well over 1200 islands. If you are visiting during the winter, be sure to visit the main town of Zagreb. Summer holidays are best spent along the coast in ancient towns such as Dubrovnik, the pearl of the Adriatic, which has gained popularity since it was used for filming in the Game of Thrones series.

ITALY

This destination speaks for itself, because let's be honest, who can truly resist delicious Italian homemade pasta and the beautiful Italian towns and countryside? Italy has remained one of the top destinations with visitors from all over the world. Holidays in Italy are all about leisure time, enjoyment and divine art admiration in historic gorgeous towns. You can go on numerous wine tours and enjoy some local wine for hours or try some cheese that goes well with your wine. Sunbathe on the cliffs of Riomaggiore and work on a gorgeous tan, or walk the ancient streets of Rome, taking photos to share with friends and family. Italy is all about celebrating life.
