

The Ultimate List of Popular Holiday Destinations in Turkey

Saturday 9 February 2019

Turkey is an unbelievably gorgeous destination whose popularity keeps growing in the past years. There are numerous towns, bays, islands, and villages to visit that will amaze everyone by the natural beauty and the warmness of local people. However, here is the list of the most popular holiday destination to visit in Turkey that you should keep an eye on for your next holidays in 2019!

Bodrum

Bodrum is an amazing port city in Muğla Province that was once in the past only a small fishing village but now its popular destination of many. Bodrum became an ideal spot for those who are starting their blue cruises with yachts since it has great connections and very conveniently nearest airport is Milas Airport. Yacht one-week cruises are usually the best way to discover the most of Turkey has to offer in short amount of time and away from large crowds. Furthermore, Bodrum offers something for everyone and the most eye-catching historic sight to visit is Bodrum Castle built from the 15th century, that is now as the world-class Museum of Underwater Archaeology. Besides that in the town you will find a lively atmosphere, many amazing restaurants, bars and shops, exceptional sightseeing opportunities, water sports, an adventure that are buzzing into the late night hours.

Marmaris

One of Turkey's most popular seaside resorts, town of Marmaris is located in the southwest of Turkey in Muğla province. It is one of the largest natural harbors in the world and a very beautiful tourists destination that has regular connected flights. Here you will be surrounded by beautiful nature and green forests, a number of coves with attractive seascapes, sandy beaches and many historic sights that are simply stunning. History lovers will love exploring the castle in Marmaris since 3000 BC, which has been converted into a museum now. Head out to the old town full of colorful shops, charming cafes, restaurants and hundreds of yachts in the summer months.

Cappadocia

Cappadocia is situated in Central Anatolia, and best known for its magical rocky landscape of formations that resemble unusual chimneys, cones, and pinnacles. Over the millennia, natural processes sculpted these odd formations that today take the breath away from visitors all over the world. Cappadocia is also every photographer's dream place since it offers endless unique beauty that can be seen in craved houses, churches, that today, some of the caves in the region are actually hotels. There are few ways to admire this beautiful place, one is surely going for a adventurous hike and admiring the views once you reach the top. However, the best attraction is definitely a tour with a air hot balloon, which provides everyone the best and the most unforgettable experience of this magical destination.

Istanbul

Istanbul is one of that destination that you can't miss on your visit to Turkey that reflects cultural influences of the many empires that once ruled here. The largest city in Turkey and one of the largest in the world, Istanbul is the place of action and enjoyment. This mesmerizing town holds impressive architecture, friendly people, amazing food, numerous historic sites, and exotic atmosphere. Everyone who visits can surely find some activity that they enjoy the most since possibilities are almost endless! Don't miss out on visiting the wonder of Hagia Sophia, gorgeous Blue Mosque or Topkapi Palace and get lost among these magical creations.

Butterfly Valley, Oludeniz

Ölüdeniz named the "Dead Sea" is the most beautiful azure lagoon that you'll see on every touristic board of Turkey. It is a great place for those who want to enjoy days on the beach relaxing and enjoying in warm crystal clear waters. Oludeniz is one of the Mediterranean's most magnificent bays with a laid-back atmosphere and loved by many visitors looking for active summer holidays. On the beach promenade, you will find many shops, cafes, and restaurants that make staying on the beach the whole day very easy. This is a great destination for families with kids too since the place is safe and there are many water sports available, and ones for adults too. Part of the lagoon is now protected and turned into a national park so the beauty of the bay is preserved.